

Tess is informal caregiver and operator.

Tess has two daughters with ADHD who require a lot of special attention. You too could suddenly have to care for a loved one and perhaps find it difficult to cope. Are you also an informal caregiver? If so, you should speak to someone about your situation, for example your manager or HR department, or seek advice from your union.

More info?

This campaign is an initiative of:

